THE BEST THE YEAR HAD TO OFFER

The box office really hit it big this year while television held its own. It was the year for cable television, with every house receiving "The Box" which allowed MTV, PBS and, depending on what was paid for, maybe even HBO, Cinemax or ONTV to come into the "viewers own home." The networks found it a hard battle competing with cable, but they did fight with an exceptional line-up of fall shows and controversial movies waiting in the wings. Farrah Fawcett proved herself to be a noteworthy actress by portraying a battered housewife who finally gets revenge in 'The Burning Bed.' Teen suicide was the touchy topic of 'Surviving' which starred Molly Ringwald and Zeh Gailigan. On the lighter side, Bill Cosby found a hit with "The Cosby Show" and Scott Baio enjoyed star status once again with "Charles in Charge." The Olympics placed first in the ratings race, which was not an unexpected surprise. The silver screen suddenly found itself overrun with country movies such as "The River" and 'Places in the Heart.' The politics of other countries were found in the "The Falcon and the Snowman" and 'The Killing Fields.' Old favorites were back, with 'Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom' and Eddie Murphy in the smash "Beverly Hills Cop." Over all, this was the year music stars to take over the box office. Sting made his debut in the Science fiction hit "Dune." Paul McCartney gave his regards to Broadstreet, while Madonna lined up two vehicles: "Desperately Seeking Susan" and "Vision Quest." The unquestionable sensation was Prince's 'Purple Rain.' This movie ruled the summer box office and is still going strong in VCR sales. Viewers received an inside look at the cliques in high schools with the sensitive portrayals of five talented actors and actresses in "The Breakfast Club." What a year!

GIRLS JV BASKETBALL

Coaches Patty Frasch and Kathy Moser feel that the girls played tough and strong throughout the season. They never gave up when they were under pressure and then played with their best ability to the end.

Major accomplishments were 7 wins. 7 losses and they also took 1st place in the Thousand Oaks Tournament. It's been a good season and they've improved greatly this year.

SHE'S GOT THAT SPANISH STYLE!

SPANISH EXCHANGE STUDENT

Hi! I'm Teresa Sivatte. I'm the exchange student from Barcelona, Spain. I really like it here a lot because I've done some really weird things. But I have joined some clubs like ASB, CSF, Future Leaders, and the tennis team. I went Whale watching and I got sea sick. I rode in the senior car in the homecoming even though I am a junior. Well, these are really weird things for me. I guess I have to say that I love California. Thanks all for being my friends. I shall be back.

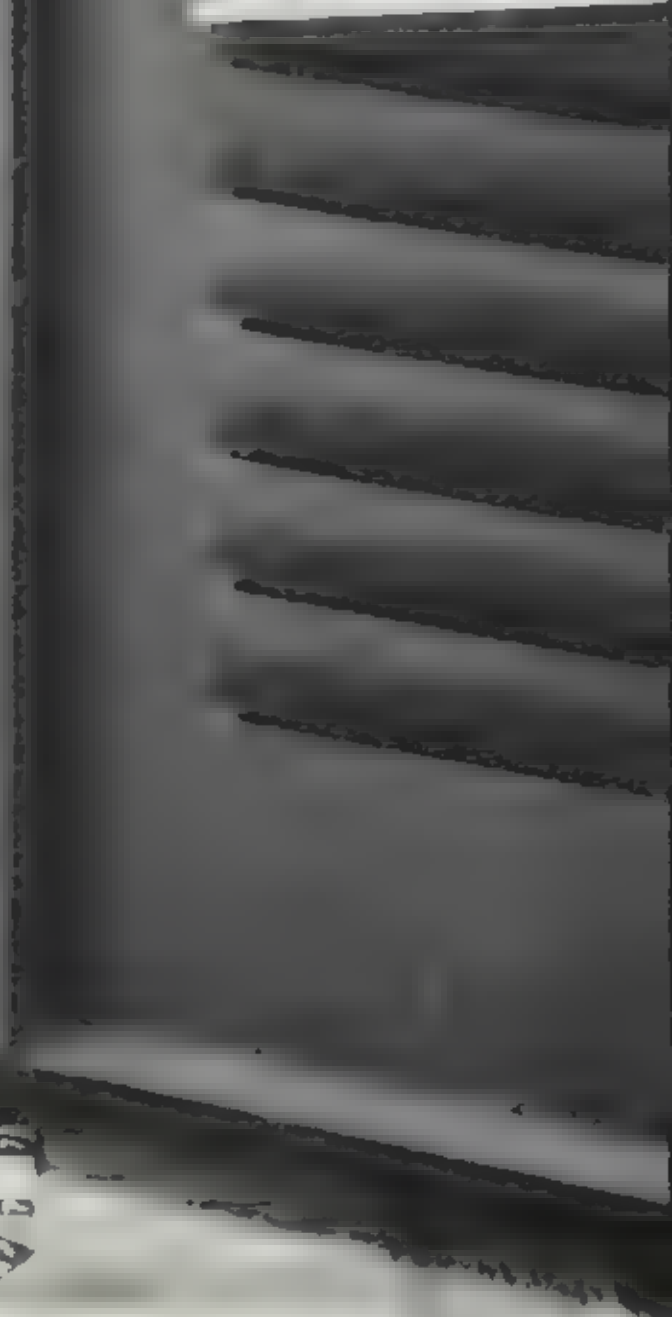

Love,

Teresa Sivatte

Hola!
Yo soy Teresa Sivatte.
Soy la estudiante extranjera de Barcelona, España.
Me encanta este país, porque aquí he hecho cosas extrañas que no había hecho nunca como pertenecer a ASB, CSF, Future Leaders y al equipo de Tenis, ir a ver ballenas y marcarme y ir en el coche de los de CO.U en Homecoming a pesar de que estoy en Tercero de BUP.
Bueno realmente cosas extrañas para mí, y además vosotros tenéis cosas que nosotros no tenemos como football, baseball and MTV.
Creo que tengo que decir que me encantan los chicos (tros) de CALIFORNIA.
Gracias todas por ser mis amigos.
Volvere,
con cariño
Teresa
